We are committed to address challenges that affects millions of people, improving the health of underserved populations in low- and middle-income countries through our science & technology innovations and products, and in close collaboration with our partners.

Our global Health Strategic Priorities

For society and sustainable business value for our Company

- Prevention
  - that address unmet medical needs of the developing world
- Treatment
  - to amplify impact and shape progress of the Sustainable Development Goals

Through our efforts and investments, we contribute to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals that are embedded into the Company’s Sustainability Strategy.

Our 3As Approach to Access

Availability
- Driving the development of innovative, affordable and accessible healthcare solutions
- Our commitment to ensure that our assets and investments reach the underserved and underserved populations, regardless of their ability to pay

Accessibility
- Access to our products & technologies to patients in need in LMICs

Affordability
- In 2007, the donation program in partnership with WHO

How we fight Schistosomiasis

Our goal: elimination of schistosomiasis as a public health problem through an integrated approach

- Up to 250 Millions
- >1.9 Billion
- >750 Millions
- >10
- >30

How we fight Malaria

Our goal: prevention and control of malaria worldwide

- >200 Millions
- 600,000
- 95%
- 80%

If you have any questions or need further assistance, feel free to ask.