Comments

- Organic growth leads to sales increase, mitigated by FX
- Rebif with solid pricing in the U.S. (Rebidose introduction) but sluggish volumes as prenotified destocking unfolds
- Erbitux shows good volumes in Emerging Markets while softness in Europe persists
- Marketing and selling improves on continued Fit for 2018 implementation
- Higher R&D due to early oncology projects and one time costs; higher investments in local R&D (for life cycle management)
- Profitability increases on organic growth as well as higher yield

Comments

- Sales increase on strong organic growth slightly mitigated by currency
- Cough and cold benefits seasonally, more so due to extended winter period in Europe
- Strong performance of strategic brands, especially Nasivin and Bion 3
- Business starts improving on Fit for 2018 initiatives but short-term volatility should still be expected
- Profitability increases thanks to healthy demand and an improved cost base

Q1 2013 share of group sales

Biopharmaceuticals organic growth performance by product

Rebif – U.S. pricing yields strong organic growth

- Rebif performance
- €454 m global sales with 6% organic growth
 - North America benefits from pricing (Rebidose) while volume decreases as prenotified destocking unfolds
 - Volume increase in Europe somewhat mitigated by pricing pressure
 - Court decision: co-promotion agreement with Pfizer effective until 2015

Erbitux – Emerging Markets drive solid performance

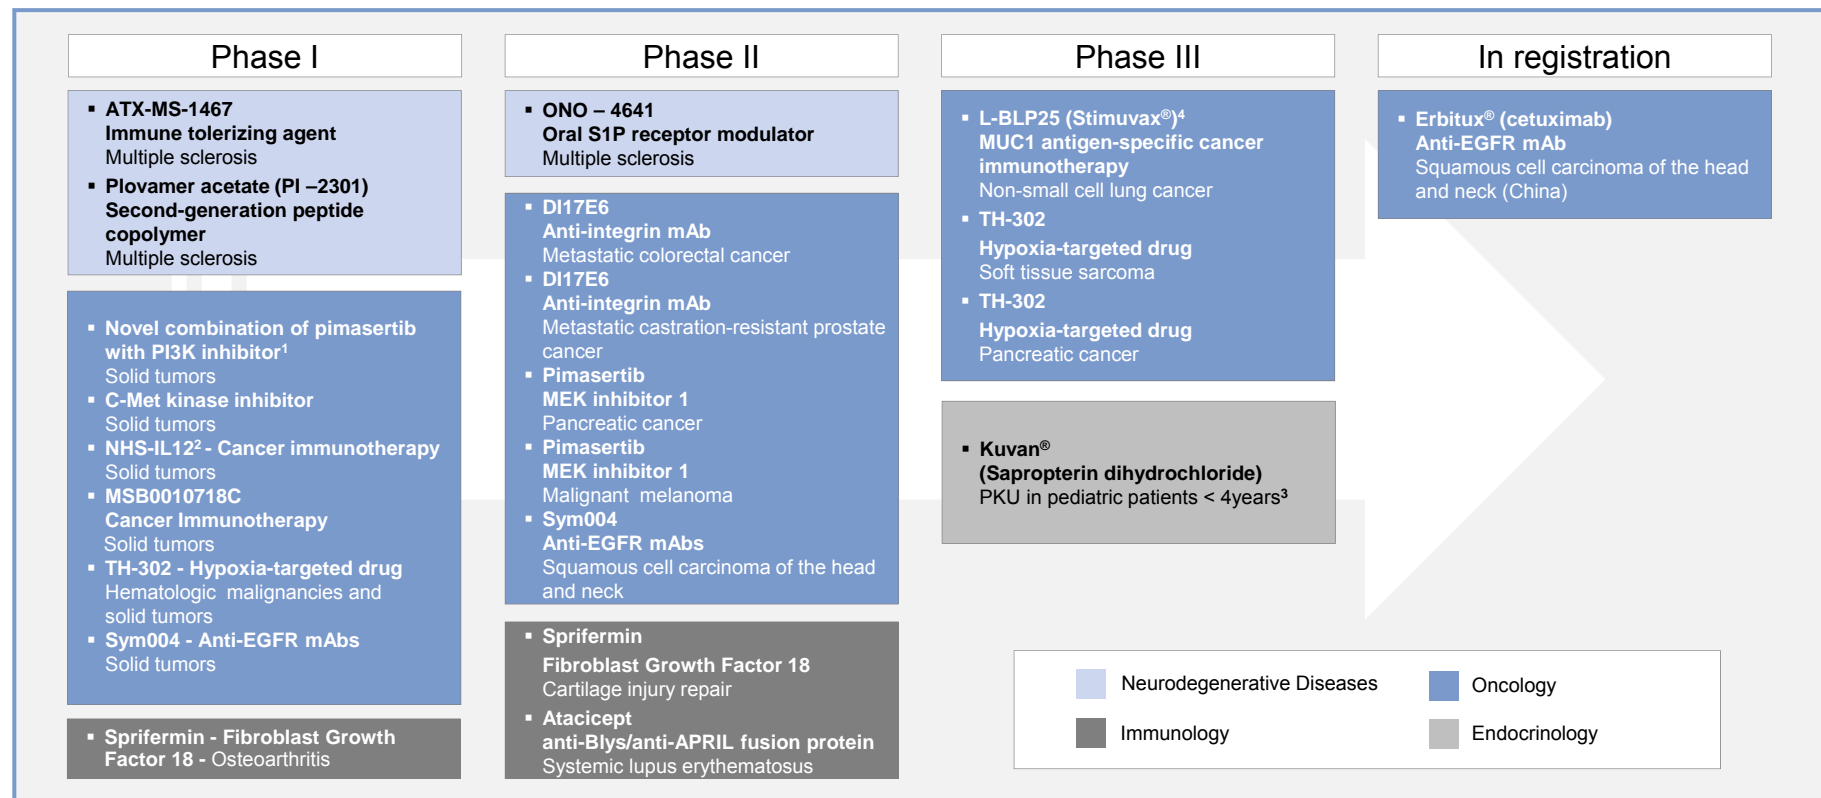

- Erbitux performance
- Global sales of €222 m reflect 7% organic sales growth and -3% FX impact
 - Emerging Markets and Russia as main growth drivers
 - Ongoing difficult market environment in Europe
 - Organic growth in Japan overcompensated by FX impact

Strong performance of Glucophage; Gonal-f and Endocrinology softer
