Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, extends offer for AZ Electronic Materials to April 18

- Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, expects to obtain Chinese antitrust clearance by April 18, 2014
- If Chinese antitrust clearance is granted, Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, will lower the acceptance threshold from 95 to 75 percent

Darmstadt, Germany, March 14 – Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, a leading company for innovative and top-quality high-tech products in the pharmaceutical and chemical sectors, today announced that it agreed to further extend the timetable of its recommended cash offer for AZ Electronic Materials (AZ). Accordingly, the offer to AZ shareholders has been extended until 1.00 p.m. (GMT) on April 18, 2014.

Since the date of the last announcement on February 28, the company has continued to have constructive dialogue with the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China (MOFCOM) and expects to obtain Chinese antitrust clearance by April 18, 2014. In the meantime, MOFCOM's review continues in the ordinary course. In light of the constructive discussions with MOFCOM, Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, does not expect that a further extension of the offer timetable will be required after April 18, 2014.

According to today's agreement, the latest date by which the offer can become or be declared unconditional as to acceptances will be extended to the date 14 days after the earliest of either the granting of Chinese antitrust clearance, or April 18, 2014.
