Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany Demonstrates Commitment to Corporate Responsibility

- 2014 Corporate Responsibility Report published for the first time in accordance with the comprehensive option of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) G4 guidelines
- Sustainability strategy comprises health, the environment and culture as strategic spheres of activity

Darmstadt, Germany, May 11 – Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany, a leading company for innovative, top-quality high-tech products in healthcare, life science and performance materials, made significant progress in achieving its corporate responsibility objectives in 2014. The Corporate Responsibility Report for 2014 documents the company's ecological and social performance. Numerous examples demonstrate how sustainability is contributing to long-term entrepreneurial success and show how the company is meeting current and future challenges, such as access to health and climate change.

"We have been taking responsibility since the company was founded nearly 350 years ago. That is because we are convinced that success can only be sustainable if it is achieved responsibly. In order to live up to our responsibility even more effectively, last year we defined three strategic spheres of activity: health, the environment and culture," said Stefan Oschmann, Vice Chairman of the Executive Board & Deputy CEO of Merck KGaA, Darmstadt, Germany.
